

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASENEW BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER ANNOUNCED AT NATIONWIDE
BOILER INC.

Fremont, CA, March 7, 2012...Nationwide Boiler Inc. is excited to announce the appointment of William "Bill" Testa to the position of Business Development Manager. Bill will focus his efforts on the strategic development of domestic and international representatives for Nationwide Boiler's rental and new equipment sales. His responsibilities will also include the implementation of new product development initiatives that will provide energy efficiency and low emission solutions to key customers within the industrial marketplace.

Bill joins Nationwide Boiler with over thirty years of sales and marketing experience. He has served end users within the industrial, utility steam and power generation markets and has held various senior-level sales positions with Bremco Inc., John Zink Company / Todd Combustion, and Coen Company, Inc. His efforts have resulted in continued sales growth and increased brand development.

"This new position will greatly aid Nationwide Boiler's capacity to expand our product offerings both domestically and internationally. Bill's past experience managing relationships with customers and representatives is quite impressive and it will be vital in helping us achieve our growth objectives. His efforts will also greatly enhance our ability to provide exceptional customer service and support to our current and new customers," explains Larry Day, Nationwide Boiler's Executive Vice President.
