

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW EASTERN US BUSINESS MANAGER ANNOUNCED FOR NATIONWIDE BOILER INC.

Fremont, California, February 13, 2015..... Nationwide Boiler Inc. is pleased to announce and welcome Jim Barbeau as the Company's Eastern United States Business Manager. Mr. Barbeau will be responsible for business development efforts, driving revenue, and increased customer engagement throughout the Eastern United States. He joins the Nationwide Boiler team from Powerhouse Equipment and Sales, based in New Jersey. It was there that Jim served as Executive Vice President, with a successful thirty year tenure generating new boiler sales and rental business opportunities.

Jim also comes to Nationwide Boiler with two years of experience at O'Brien Energy and four years experience at Penn Jersey Boiler supporting the company's sales and marketing efforts throughout North America, where he was instrumental for the growth and supply of new boiler equipment to the commercial boiler market. He spent an additional four years experience at Schmidt's Brewery, where he started his career in the boiler industry as an engineer in training while attending Drexel University in Philadelphia, PA.

"I am thrilled to be on board and excited to help establish Nationwide's reputation in the East Coast. My entire career has been spent in the boiler industry and I look forward to continue the tradition of providing the best solutions to Nationwide's current and future customers."
